SPECIAL TO THE STAR

Tired of the same old trips? Wya Point Resort in Ucluelet, B.C., has just the thing for the "been there, done that" crowd: a Surf, Savour & Stay package featuring accommodation in an oceanside eco-yurt.

Best described as platform tents, the circular yurts come with barbecues, fireplaces and wraparound decks with views of the ocean.

Starting at $460 per couple for two nights, and representing a savings of 25 per cent, Surf, Savour & Stay also includes surf lessons and rentals for two on the shores of Pacific Rim National Park Reserve, plus lunch at the beachfront Kwisis Feast House.

Travel must be completed by Oct. 15. See wyapoint.com.

for nearby Sawgrass Mill Mall outlet centre, with savings worth $500, as well as a $50 shipping credit to help get your purchases home.

See the art, stay the night for Nuit Blanche Toronto's own Scotiabank Nuit Blanche 2013 is coming up, with art and culture events scheduled through the night on Sat. Oct. 5, from sunset to sunrise.

If you're coming into town (or have friends who are), 15 Toronto hotels are offering two-night packages Oct. 4-6 that include admission to "Behind the Nuit," a preview event featuring Ai Weiwei's Forever Bicycles, as well as deals for the AGO and Via Rail. Most hotels are also offering late checkout, so you can get a bit of shut-eye.

Prices start at $189 per night.

See scotiabanknuitblanche.ca/travel-packages.

Best buy of the week

The upscale Gansevoort, Turks & Caicos is offering three nights for the price of two, or seven nights for the price of five, for travel Sept. 5-Oct. 17.

For contact details see gansevoort-hotels.com.
