For the third year in a row, World Ski Awards has named Pan Pacific Whistler Mountainside Canada's Best Ski Hotel. The hotel claimed the title in 2013 and 2014 and is now celebrating again, as the Oscars of the travel industry have crowned the lift-side, Whistler hotel as being one of the best in the ski industry.

The resort was well represented at last weekend's awards ceremony in Kitzbühel, Austria. Summit Lodge won the title of Best Boutique Ski Boutique Hotel.

"We have been named the best ski hotel in Canada for the third year in a row by World Ski awards," said Lloyd Daser, general manager of Pan Pacific Whistler hotels. "Honours like this make our team very proud and serve to inspire us to do even better.

"We look forward to welcoming skiers and boarders from all over the world to Whistler this year."

World Ski Awards is the only global initiative to recognize, reward and celebrate excellence in the global ski tourism industry. The World Ski Awards program has categories for the Best Ski Resort, Best Ski Hotel, Best Ski Boutique Hotel and Best Ski Chalet for each of the world's top 24 ski tourism nations. Votes are cast by professionals working within the ski industry – senior executives, travel buyers, tour operators, agents, media and by the public.
